AT the Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September, 1757,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of August last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Fifteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Rome, August 20. A Criminal, who had murdered his Master at Milan, having taken Refuge in this City, was, a few Days ago, at the Request of the Government of Milan, arrested, and conducted by a Party of Bailiffs to the Confines of the Legation of Ferrara, there to be delivered to those sent from Milan, in order order to be brought to Justice. The King of Naples, at the Request of the Grand Master of Malta, has approved the Choice of the Prior of that Cathedral, to succeed in the vacant Bishoprick of that Island. The Pope is so well recovered as to be able to go frequently out in a Chair to take the Air.

Rome, August 27. Sollicitations are continually made to the Pope to dispose of the vacant Hats in the College of Cardinals, to which he seems at present inclined.

Florence, August 27. On the 23d sailed from Leghorne four Maltese Gallies and two Xebecs, which, a few Days before, had anchored at that Port to provide themselves with Necessaries. His Britannick Majesty's Ships the Ambuscade and the Lyme are still at Leghorne; the former is to sail on Monday with the Trade to Gibraltar.

Florence, Sept. 3. On the 29th past sailed from Leghorne for Gibraltar His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Ambuscade, Capt. Gwynn, convoying the Trade for England. Sailed also from that Port His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Lyme for Genoa, to convoy the English Merchant Men from that Port to Leghorne. On the 30th past, at about Half an Hour after Two in the Morning, a severe Shock of an Earthquake was felt here, which though it alarmed People so much as to induce many to run into the Streets and open Places, yet did no Mischief: It was preceded for many Hours by a very high Wind, which ceased immediately after the Shock was over.

Turin, Sept. 7. On the 1st of this Month his Sardinian Majesty, accompanied by the Duke of Savoy and the Duke of Chablais, went to view the Fortifications of Coni, and to give Orders for the Addition of some Works upon the Mountains near the Fortrefs of Demont; the 5th the King of Sardinia and their Royal Highnesses returned to Turin. The Count St. Vitale, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the Infant Duke of Parma, had his Audiences Yesterday of the King of Sardinia, to thank his Majesty for all the Attentions shewn to the Infanta during her Journey: He was afterwards presented to the rest of the Royal Family, and returns back in a few Days to Parma.

Articles of Capitulation proposed by the Director and Council for the French East-India Company's Affairs at Chandernagore to Vice-Admiral Watson, with his Answers, 23d March, 1757.

AR T I C L E S of Capitulation for Fort D'Orlean of Chandernagore, proposed by Peter Renault, Esq; Director General, and the Gentlemen of the Council for the French East-India Company's Affairs, to Charles Watson, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue Squadron of His Britannick Majesty's Fleet; and Commander in Chief of all His Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed in the East-Indies; and of the Marine Force of the United Company of Merchants trading to, and in these Parts.

Article 1.

The Lives of all the Deserters shall be saved.

2. All the Officers of this Garrison shall be Prisoners on their Parole of Honour; that they shall have Liberty to carry with them all their Effects, and go where they please, on promising they will not serve against His Britannick Majesty during the present War.
3. The Soldiers of the Garrison shall be Prisoners of War, so long as the present War continues; and when Peace is made between the King of France and the King of England, they shall be sent to Pondicherry, and till then be entertained at the Expence of the English Company.
4. The Seapoys of the Garrison shall not be Prisoners of War, they shall have Leave on the contrary to return on the Coast in their Country.
5. The Officers and Men of the Company's European Ship St. Contest, shall be sent to Pondicherry in the first English Ship which goes to the Coast.

AN S W E R S made by Charles Watson, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue Squadron of His Britannick Majesty's Fleet, and Commander in Chief of all His Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed in the East-Indies; and of the Marine Force of the United Company of Merchants trading to, and in these Parts, in the Name of His Britannick Majesty, to the Proposals made by the Governor and Council for the Affairs of the French Company at Chandernagore.

Article 1.

The Deserters to be absolutely given up.

2. The Admiral agrees to.
3. The Admiral likewise agrees with this Difference only, that instead of sending the Soldiers to Pondicherry, they shall be sent to Madras or to England, as the Admiral shall hereafter think proper; and that such Foreigners, who are not of the French Nation, and choose voluntarily to enter into the English Service, shall have Liberty.
4. The Admiral agrees to.
5. The Officers and Men of the European Ship shall be upon the same Footing as the Soldiers, and to be sent to Madras or to England as soon as possible.
6. The

6. The French Jesuit Fathers shall have Liberty to exercise the Functions of their Religion in the House which has been assigned them, since the Demolishing of their Church: The Silver Ornaments, and every Thing that belongs to the Church, shall be given them, and also their Effects.

7. All the Inhabitants, of what Nation or Quality soever, as Europeans, Musstees, Christians, Blacks, Gentils, Moors and others, shall be put in Possession of their Houses, and all in general as shall be found belonging to them, either in the Fort, or on their Estates.

8. The Factories of Cassimbuzar, Dacca, Patna, Jeuda, and of Ballasore, shall remain at the Command of the Chiefs who direct them.

9. The Director, Counsellors, and those employed under them, shall have Leave to go where they please, with their Cloths and Linen.

6. The Admiral cannot agree to any Europeans residing here, but that the French Jesuits may go to Pondicherry, with all the Ornaments of their Church, or where-ever they please.

7. In regard to this Article, to be left to the Admiral, who will do Justice.

8. To be settled between the Nabob and the Admiral.

9. The Admiral agrees to.

The Admiral expects an Answer by Three o'Clock this Afternoon, and that the British Forces may take Possession of the Fort by Four.

The abovementioned Propositions have been accepted of by the Council; in Consequence of which we have delivered up the Fortress of Chandernagore to Admiral Watson.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or,
The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mulletts Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsum, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

WHEREAS Mr. Michael Dillon, the Son of Mr. Richard Dillon, late of Bally Mahon, in the County of Longford, in the Kingdom of Ireland, Merchant, went on board of some Ship bound for the East or West Indies, and sailed from the Downs in the Month of March 1752, since which Time he has not been heard of: If he will return to said Kingdom of Ireland without Loss of Time, or write to his Mother, or other Friends, he will find it greatly to his Advantage, a considerable Fortune being left to him by his said Father, who is dead. But he is to observe that there is a Time limited for him to come home, else his said Fortune will be forfeited. If he will apply or direct to Messrs. Isidore Lynch and Co. of London, Merchants, they will inform him of further Particulars.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners named in an Act of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to enable the Reverend William Markham, Doctor of Laws, and Thomas Salter, Esq; to build Houses and open a Square in and upon a certain Piece of Ground called Deans Yard Westminster, and several Pieces of Ground contiguous thereto" do intend to meet on Tuesday the 11th Day of October next, in order to fix a Day for a Jury to attend and ascertain the Value of the Houses and Estates in College Court Deans Yard, belonging to Mr. Nicholas Hooper, and the House and Estate contiguous thereto, belonging to the Reverend Doctor Thomas Wilson; and the House, Sheds and Estates contiguous likewise thereto, belonging to William Waite, Carpenter, as Tenant under Lieutenant General Cholmondeley.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Andrew Jones, of Bread Street Hill, London, Cornfactor, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Thursday the 29th Day of this Instant September, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at the London Stone Tavern in Cannon Street, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing one or more Suit of Suite at Law or in Equity touching the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, or compounding, agreeing, or submitting to Arbitration any Matter relating thereto; and on other special Affairs.
